HIGH CLASS MINSTREL SHOW AT CRYSTAL FOR TOMORROW AND SUNDAY

A rag time band and real minstrelsy is in the offering at the Crystal theater on next Saturday and Sunday when the Nashville students will make their first appearance here in two or more years. As indicated, the students have visited Albuquerque previously and upon every occasion they have interested those who came to hear them with a high class minstrel performance interpreted by a corps of the highest satisfied of the negro artists working on the western coast.

In music alone the negro excels all others and the lovers of the type of productions to be presented tomorrow and Sunday evenings will find one of the most complete productions of its character to be seen or heard on the road today. The company includes such high class artists as Cox Herndon, the great hoop roller; Washington and Freels, musical artists; Ed Toliver and Tom Harris, and men and comedians, and several others of high rank in the ministry.

LOCAL WOMAN GIVEN HIGH DISTINCTION

Word was received here today of the appointment of Miss Jennie L. Trout, supervisor of music in the public schools, as one of the advisory council of the music supervisor's national conference, an organization which is working for the advancement of music in the public schools.

MAN REPRIEVED SIX TIMES TO DIE TODAY

By Evening Herald Leased Wire
Phoenix, Ariz., May 19.—Former Judge Kent, who presided at the trial of Francisco Rodriguez, made an eleventh-hour appeal to the pardon board to reprise the condemned man on the ground that he had already been in jeopardy six times. The board refused to consider the case further and the execution will probably occur between 3 and 4 this afternoon.

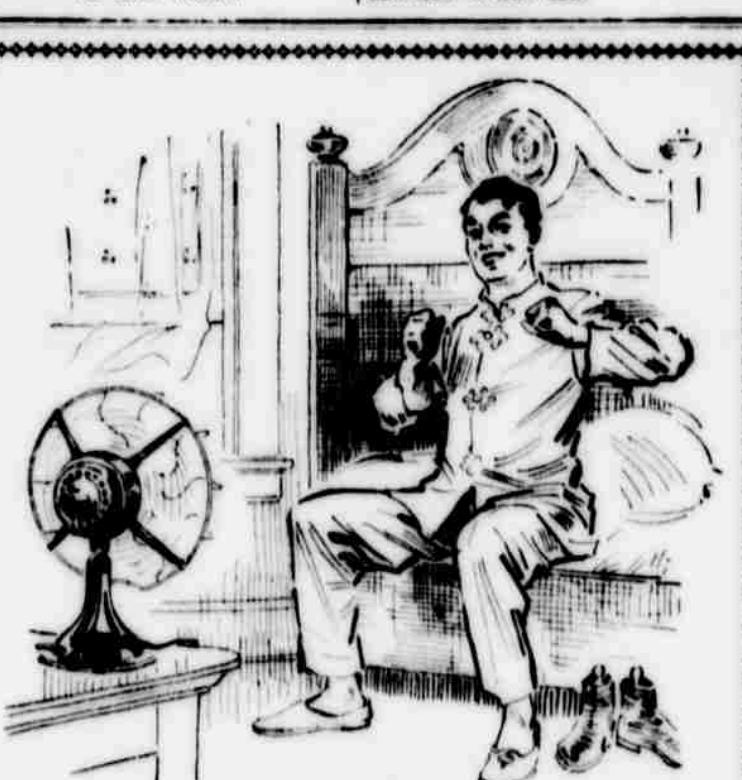

William Perry ignored the noon traffic stop at First street and Central avenue yesterday and got a layover. Unfortunately for William, however, Tom Summers, the regular traffic cop at Second and Central, saw him. William paid a $1 fine in the city court this morning.

The Markets

New York Stock Exchange.
New York, May 19.—Rails were again the conspicuous feature of today's very active market. Reading led with new high records.

Reading was again the center of interest at the opening of today's market, its 7-point advance of the previous day to 140 of double par on an enormous overturn turning one of the most sensational features of recent years. The stock opened with an offering of 12,000 shares at yesterday's record price, followed by blocks of 1,000 to 3,000 shares at steady gains up to 191 $\frac{1}{2}$ . Reading second preferred also made a new high record at 52, and other leading rails responded with one to two-point gains. Securities were almost neglected in the demand for standard stocks but material advances were registered in that quarter of the market.

The Reading movement attained more impressive proportions later, the common stock advancing to 196 $\frac{1}{2}$ . Dealings in Reading during the forenoon were estimated at 160,000 shares. Other high-grade rails, as well as inactive stocks of that group, were favorably influenced, especially Baltimore & Ohio and New York Central, those roads holding large amounts of Reading in their treasuries. Profit-taking reduced gains by a point or more at midday. Bonds were strong.

Steel, copper and marines were the mainstays of the final hour, Reading again falling sharply on increased realizing. The close was strong.

Chicago Board of Trade.

Chicago, May 19.—Wheat showed fresh weakness today as the result of poor talk, but the new declines failed to last. Opening prices, which ranged from 54 $\frac{1}{2}$  to 55 $\frac{1}{2}$ , lower, with July at 51 $\frac{1}{2}$  to 51 $\frac{1}{2}$ , and September at 51 $\frac{1}{2}$  to 51 $\frac{1}{2}$ , were followed by a virtually complete recovery. The close was unsettled, 54 $\frac{1}{2}$  net lower, with July at 51 $\frac{1}{2}$  and September at 51 $\frac{1}{2}$  to 52 $\frac{1}{2}$ .

Rapid progress of planting put the bulls at a disadvantage in the corn market. After opening unchanged to 80 lower prices underwent a material sag all around. The close was nervous as to 80 $\frac{1}{2}$  net decline.

Oats suffered a downturn with corn.

Higher quotations on hogs made provisions advance.
